A gift to mission has been given in your honor through United Methodist Women to support mission around the world, including the Martha O. Landon O’Neill Center in Cambodia, which provides expectant mothers with health training on hygiene, family planning, infant child care and nutritional needs for healthy families. This gift to mission also funds United Methodist Women member services and leadership development.