Mission Giving supports eight regional missionaries, whose work with women’s societies, ecumenical organizations and grassroots groups reaches 49 countries and the Caribbean.

United Methodist Women Mission outreach in Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean

1. Asociación red de mujeres para el desarrollo. Training women entrepreneurs in business and financial management as producers of cocoa and bananas. San José, Costa Rica
2. Colegio Sara Alarcón. Support the operations and programming at Sara Alarcón College. Mexico City, Mexico
3. Acción Médica Cristiana. Protection of the rights of children and youth through staff training and public awareness campaign. Purchase of livestock and development of livestock bank. Managua, Nicaragua
4. World Federation of Methodist and United Church Women in the Caribbean. Support for regional seminars, focusing on sustainable development for effective work of women in their communities. Solanos Village, Antigua
5. Gilbert Agricultural and Rural Development Center. Community reintegration program for 30 formerly incarcerated youth and life-skill support for at-risk youth. St. Peter, Antigua
6. Grenada Community Development Agency (GRENCODA). Keeping children and youth meaningfully engaged and risk-free during the summer school holidays. Gouyave, Grenada

Caribbean and Americas (MCCA) women’s organization and wider church in French- and English-speaking countries of the Caribbean and Americas.

- Haitian Artisans for Peace International (HAPI) (Michigan). Training, technology, material and human resource for maternal care from pregnancy through early childhood, increasing market access for artisan products, and preparing young people for employment or educational opportunities. Expanding the maternal health Start Right program in rural southern Haiti.
- Regional Missionary Andrea Reily Rocha, Latin America. Support and promotion of leadership for all Methodist women, identifying issues and concerns of gender and gender equity, fostering abundant life, women’s empowerment in church and community, and income security and education for the uprooted and marginalized.