83 international scholarships totaling more than $440,000 were awarded to students around the world.

1. Federación de Mujeres Metodistas, Workshops on prenatal and postnatal health and nutrition, breastfeeding, disease prevention and parenting. Training women in sewing. Buenos Aires, Argentina

2. World Student Christian Federation. Regional team of young experts to effectively advocate with WSCF networks in local, national and international governance on climate justice. Buenos Aires, Argentina

3. Federación Feminista Metodista (FFEMED). Labor, construction materials and installation of electrical and sanitary facilities for the Tabita home and community center. La Paz, Bolivia

4. Iglesia Evangelica Metodista en Bolivia. Support for women’s coordinator and her secretary. La Paz, Bolivia

5. Methodist Church of Boa Vista Roraima. Kitchen and craft courses for Warao indigenous to compete in the labor market. Access to education for Warao children. Boa Vista, Brazil

6. Shade and Fresh Water Project. Expansion of after-school program for at-risk youth between 15 and 18 years of age. São Paulo, Brazil

7. Educación Popular en Salud (EPES). Training for community organizations that serve women, children and youth, enabling them to advocate for healthy living in harmony with social and natural surroundings. Santiago, Chile

8. Centro Popular para América Latina de Comunicación (CEPALC). Training on women’s rights and in radio and television journalism skills for indigenous and Afro-Columbian young women. Bogotá, Colombia

9. Iglesia Colombiana Metodista, Clinton Rabb Clinic. Health education, screening and treatment for indigenous and Afro-Colombian communities focusing on reducing maternal and child morbidity. Medellín, Colombia

10. Iglesia Evangelica Metodista Unida del Ecuador. Pastoral work and training for volunteers to promote “salud integral,” providing Christian education and socioeconomic development programs for children and families. Quito, Ecuador

No single location on map
- Hesperian Foundation (Berkeley, Calif.). Support the publication, distribution and promotion of the Hesperian Health Guides throughout Latin America and U.S.-based Spanish-speaking communities to build capacity for action for women’s health and rights.
- Regional Missionary Andrea Reilly Rocha, Latin America. Support and promotion of leadership for all Methodist women. Identifying issues and concerns of gender and gender equity, fostering abundant life, women’s empowerment in church and community, and income security and education for the uprooted and marginalized.