

United Methodist Seminars on National and International Affairs

“BE NOT CONFORMED
TO THIS WORLD, BUT BE TRANSFORMED BY THE RENEWING OF YOUR MIND.”
—ROMANS 12:2

Custom-designed seminars on national and international affairs provide an opportunity for groups to:

EXPLORE issues through interactive exercises, Bible study and discussion.

ENGAGE with human rights activists, grass-roots organizations and religious leaders.

LEARN about the work of the U.S. government and the United Nations.

VISIT local community organizations.

ACT during the seminar and develop actions to take upon returning home.

GROUPS CAN SELECT THEIR OWN SOCIAL JUSTICE TOPIC.

RECENT SEMINAR TOPICS INCLUDE:

| Hunger | Peace |
| Health | Racism |
| Climate change | Human trafficking |
| Immigration | Geographic studies |

“Hearing these stories led me to ask two questions: How am I contributing to this problem, and how can I help?”

Come to New York City or Washington, D.C.:

Seminars are offered in a variety of settings and lengths of time. The experience is tailored to your interests and requirements.

In New York City, seminars are held at the Church Center for the United Nations, directly across from the United Nations.

In Washington, D.C., seminars are held at the United Methodist Building, adjacent to the U.S. Capitol and the Supreme Court.

You can also plan a seminar that takes place in both New York City and D.C. A seminar designer will work with your group to ensure a cohesive experience.

“This program is great! I’m so proud of my church for being on top of such important issues.”
