

Dear President Obama,

I believe that all people's rights and dignity must be respected. The detention of families is a human rights violation, much like the incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II. Today, thousands of Central American women & children — many of whom are seeking asylum from extreme violence — are being locked up in remote detention camps. I call for the release of all families, and for modern-day incarceration camps in Berks, PA, and Dilley & Karnes, TX, to be closed.

Sincerely,

Name: _____

Address: _____

-----

Photos: (Top) The incarceration camp at Manzanar where over 10,000 Japanese Americans were detained during World War II. Photo by Ansel Adams. (Bottom) The detention camp in Dilley, where 2,400 immigrant mothers and children will be detained. Photo by Matthew Gossage.

President Obama

---

1600 Pennsylvania Ave, NW

---

Washington, DC

---

20500

---

Manzanar, California, 1943

Dilley, Texas, 2015